"Gen. Grant never has been defeated and he never will be."-Honace Greekley. "While asserting the right of every Repub-lican to his untrammeled choice of a candi-date for next President until a nomination is made. I renture to suggest that Gen. Gran weill be far better qualified for that momentous trust in 1872 than he was in 1868."—Honace Greelet, speech on 5th January, 1871.

REGISTRATION.

The Registers will open their books in the several districts for the completion and correction of the Lists of Voters, on Monday, 28th and Tuesday 29th inst. Itis very important that all should attend who have not been registered, and that canvassers of the districts be present to see that no names are inadvertantly scratched that ought to remain on and none remain on that ought to be taken off.

HANDY AND CHEAP.

While the Republicans had the furni ture of their Headquarters to hire and pay for, the Greeley-Sumner-Black-Republican Club, carried what they wanted out of the Court House to their club room. There is OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. no use of having friends without you use them. Good for the Liberal Reformers .-They will just help themselves out of the when they get Grant's "Federal bayonets" campaign. told his audience that the crowning exploit of Greeley's life was bailing Jeff Davis; and his most golden utterance was that the nation would, some time in the future, be as proud of Lee and Stonewall Jackson, as she was of her Washingtons, her Jacksons, and her Union Generals. And thus Greeley is over used to punctuate Democracy and the southern rebellion.

Decision on Registration.

Judge Pinkney, of Baltimore City, decided, on Monday last, that a roter has the right to be registered without a certificate from the Register of the District where he last resided, whether going from county to county or from District to District in the same county.

The party in question was deprived of his name on the Registeration list because of his failing to obtain or produce his certificate of Registration from the Register of the place where he last voted. Believing the Register wrong in his opinion in erally toward bearing the expenses of the speaker which the Sumner-Greeley-Black-Republican club of the Court House ring had on last Saturday evening. Without exception, and including speakers we have heard in all parties, we never listened to such a doleful before. He chopped the empty air with his right arm for an indefinite period, and continued to bray,-rather than utter, the most stuped twaddle ever heard in the old Court House. The President, of the club who has a passionate fondness for a good speech, got disgusted very soon and stepped out, leaving Mr. Groome to preside. He set his teeth and pared his nails to the quick while enduring the agony, which pure courtesy compelled him to "grin and bear." We looked at the sprinkling of Radical Black-Republicans of the new Greeley dispensation, till our bowels yearned for them, as they groaned in spirit. If any honest man with fair average intelligence, who looked into the Court House on Saturday night and was not convinced beyond all peradventure, of the miserable "phlumax" this Greeley swindle is, he would not be convinced, "though one should arise from the dead."

We never witnessed a more shamed faced, humilated looking set than the "old hat" party were on that occasion.

ARCHER'S RECORD IN CONGRESS.

The Hon. Stevenson Archer, the Greeley caudidate for Congress in this District, in all his speeches in the present canvass is asking votes for Greeley and himself on the ground that they both favor perfect reconciliation between North and South. This is mere clap-trap and uttered to deceive From the Telegraph, Rep.

failed to record his rote in its farer.

We ask all thoughtful citizens to consider these facts, and not blindly vote for a man simply because he is the nominee of a party. For if the Amendments above mentioned are not firmly held to be part of the Constitution and an effort is made to upset them it will throw the whole country into confusion which would doubtless end in anarchy. We recommend the perusal of the record of Senator Trumbull, printed on our first page, to all honest men. This gentleman is one of the leading " Reformers" who are running Greeley. Trumbull is a fair representative of the Cincinnati "Reformers." The assumptions of honesty and patriotism which such men make are enough to disgust every honest man.

TWe have received a report of a Woman's Rights meeting which is in time for next week.

The meeting at the Grant, Wilson and Hancock Club, of the 3rd District at the ing. Court House, on Wednesday night last, was an ovation to our candidate for Congress. The house was packed by an audiwho lingered as it loath to leave after the day discussed by Major Hancock, who made one of the most effective, and convincing speeches that has been delivered here during the campaign, which was frequently interrupted by applause; and when
